

CENTRAL SCHOOL of DANCE & DRAMA ETHOS STATEMENT

- To provide an excellent level of training, encouraging the appreciation of dance and to develop performance skills, a sense of musicality, social awareness and self-confidence.
- To provide a safe, nurturing environment so that students gain a rich education in dance.
- To understand the individual needs of each student and catering through differentiation in inclusive classes to build their confidence and ability.
- To enable students to partake in examinations to set standards and reward achievements whilst following the RAD and ISTD code of conduct and professional practice.
- The Central School of Dance is committed to providing professional development and life long learning.